Turabian: Parentheticals / References List Style

Following the Turabian P/R style means after each use of a source in the text of your paper, you must insert a parenthetical reference that indicates to readers the Author, publication year, and page number of the source being referenced.

This specific citation corresponds to a full citation at the paper’s References list. Here’s what that looks like:

In the body of your paper:
Throughout the early twentieth century, women scholars had increasing impact on scholarship and were proving themselves to be especially adroit researchers as well as specifically gifted teachers (Anderson, 2011, 3-5).

That’s your parenthetical citation.

In the corresponding entry at the References List:

Other Examples – highlighted words should appear in the reference:

BOOK
Parenthetical, more than one author:
(Author 1 Last Name and Author 2 Last Name Year of Publication, page – page)

Reference List more than one author:
Author 1 Last name, First name and Author 2 First Name Last Name. Year. Title of book: Subtitle of book. Place of publication: Publisher’s Name.

ARTICLE
Parenthetical:
(Author’s Last Name Year of Publication, page – page)

Reference List:
Author’s Last Name, Author’s First Name. Year of Publication. Title of article: Subtitle of article. Title of Journal volume number (any additional publication information): page - page.

Any source accessed via electronic means should include the URL (i.e. http:// ) address at the end of the Reference listings as well as [accessed Month Day Year] of access.
